Subject: Police aide Nettie Ballard Retirement

Police Aide Nettie R. Ballard announced her retirement from the Mansfield Division of Police effective February 28, 2019.

Nettie was hired on February 25, 1989 as a Police Aide for the Mansfield City Jail. She became a Correction Officer on May 1, 1994 after receiving her OPOTA certification training. June 26, 2008 the last prisoner in the City Jail was transferred to the Richland County Jail and Nettie was assigned to an administration position.

Nettie's dedication to the department, her work ethics and conscientiousness for her position have always been of the utmost importance to her, and was displayed many times over in the performance of her duties and unwavering assistance to every citizen she assisted. The daily operation of the Department ran more smoothly and professionally in part to her efforts. Her knowledge, integrity and positive attitude were respected by all.

Nettie has our congratulations on her retirement and our heartfelt thanks for her many years of loyal service. We wish her good health and happiness in the future.

Everyone is invited to a farewell reception for Nettie on Tuesday, February 26, at 1300 hours, in the Mansfield City Council Chambers.

HAPPY RETIREMENT AND GOOD LUCK NETTIE!
